

FAMILY MEDIATION CENTER

listen. talk. resolve.

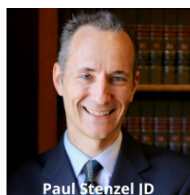

NOW ONLINE FOR REMOTE ACCESS!

Join us virtually for innovative mediation training focused on mediating with self-represented couples.

SIGN UP NOW

Susan Hansen JD

Paul Stenzel JD

Casey Holtz PhD

30-Hour Interdisciplinary Family Mediation Training

4-Days October 15-16 + November 5-6, 2020

All sessions online with extensive interactives and role plays

This training opportunity benefits both beginning and experienced mediators. It is open to court officials, lawyers, mental health providers, and financial professionals. Includes practical interactive learning integrated with best practices.

Participants will learn and experience:

- Initial phone calls and joint education meeting
- Step-by-step mediation process
- Interdisciplinary tools and teamwork
- Interest-based negotiation strategies
- Mediation skills--legal, financial, child-inclusive family plans
- Mediator drafting
- Zoom mediation
- How to build a mediation practice

In addition to our presentations and demonstrations, each training participant will receive mentoring and feedback from experienced mediator coaches and a binder of learning materials, client handouts, and practice tools.

Co-sponsor:

Family Law Section

For more information and sign-up, go to www.familymediationcenter.org